FINANCIAL SERVICES AND TRANSPARENCY THE FOCUS OF IOD JERSEY LUNCH

Deputy CEO of Jersey Finance, Richard Corrigan has been announced as the guest speaker for the first in a series of four IOD Jersey lunch clubs sponsored by JT.

He will address the topic of 'financial services and the transparency debate' during the lunch event which takes place on Tuesday 20th September at The Grand Hotel & Spa, from 12pm to 2pm.

JT's Managing Director of Global Enterprise, Paul Taylor: "JT has a longstanding partnership with the IoD across the Channel Islands and we are pleased to extend our support to the Jersey branch to enable their Lunch Clubs to prosper. We very much look forward to hearing from Richard Corrigan on a topic which should encourage some lively debate and also highlight the important role that technology has to play in enabling transparency. Furthermore, we're also looking forward to our CEO, Graeme Millar contributing to the annual IOD Jersey debate as a member of the panel."

Chris Clark, IOD Jersey Chairman said: "We're delighted to have JT on board as sponsor for the second half of 2016's Lunch Club series. These events create opportunities for our members to hear from high profile individuals on critical topics which directly impact their businesses and the wider community. Having sponsorship from the likes of JT enables us to deliver our calendar of scheduled events."

The IoD's Lunch Club is designed to enable guests to network, socialise, and listen to a varied programme of eminent speakers from both the public and private sectors as well as aspiring entrepreneurs and personalities.
